Citizens Information Service - Service Offer

Citizens Information Services (CISs) provide free, impartial and confidential information, advice and advocacy services to the public. Each Citizens Information Service covers a geographical area within their region, facilitating both rural and urban areas, delivering a service through a network of Citizen Information Centres (CICs).

Information and Advice

Our Information Officers assist people with queries in relation to a broad spectrum of public and social services, including social welfare entitlements, income tax calculations, housing supports and access to health services. Our staff receive regular training and social policy updates to ensure that the information and advice that we provide is up-to-date and relevant for CIS service-users.

Social Policy

Our staff also engage in social policy reporting, highlighting issues that affect CIS clients in accessing public services, which in turn feeds into the work of the Citizens Information Board in the development of policy papers and recommendations to government. Through this process, CIS Information Officers capture social policy issues in real-time, facilitating the development of responsive and evidence-based policy reporting.

Advocacy

If a person presents with a query or problem that we are not able to assist with through our drop-in information/advice service, Information Officers can provide further support through our advocacy service. This can mean a once-off engagement, such as assisting someone to write a letter or make a phone call, or a complex and longer-term process such as preparing people for, or representing them at, a Social Welfare Appeals Office or Workplace Relations Commission hearing.

The range and level of advocacy support provided by CISs has continued to develop and expand year on year, with significant outcomes achieved for people around the country in the areas including employment, equality, housing and social welfare. All Information Officers are supported by a regional Advocacy Support Worker who provides expert advice, coaching and mentoring in this key aspect of our work.

Applicants

If you are interested in working within a dynamic, face-to-face information service environment, engaging in representative advocacy casework, and leading a team of Information Providers to deliver these services to the general public, we welcome your application for the permanent position of Senior Information Officer with our service.

Citizens Information Services – Locations

Each Citizens Information Regional Company covers a geographical region, facilitating both rural and urban areas, delivering a service through a network of Citizen Information Centres.

The 8 regional CIS companies cover the following areas: North Dublin, Dublin South, North Connacht & Ulster, North Leinster, North Munster, South Connacht, South Leinster and South Munster, as illustrated in the map below. Each CIS Region is subdivided into a number of CIS Service Areas which in turn each contain a number of Citizens Information Centres.

Senior Information Officer - Job Description

Purpose of the job:

The Senior Information Officer role is comprised of two central functions, with working hours divided equally between the following responsibilities:

- To deliver information, advice and advocacy at a high level to members of the public in a designated service area.
- To coach, mentor and support Information Officers to ensure that all customer-service quality objectives and standards are met.

Reporting to:

The Development Manager

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

Information, Advice and Advocacy

- The direct delivery of face-to-face information, advice and advocacy services to the public at a complex level, in the core areas of Citizens Information Service provision, including social welfare, employment, housing, consumer, immigration and disability rights, in line with the Citizens Information Board guidelines for the provision of Citizens Information Services (CIS).
- Maintain comprehensive and up-to-date knowledge of relevant legislative and policy developments in the core areas of Citizens Information Service provision.
- Maintain an active advocacy caseload and provide complex advocacy to CIS service-users, including representation at fora including the Social Welfare Appeals Office, Workplace Relations Commission, and Residential Tenancies Board.
- Operation of query management, advocacy case management and data collection/statistical analysis systems.

Coaching and Mentoring

- Coach and mentor staff in the development of their information, advice and advocacy skills, ensuring that all members are working to achieve service objectives and delivery targets and the delivery of a high-quality professional service.
- Provide regular updates and briefings to Information Providers on legislative, policy and administrative changes relevant to the provision of information and advocacy.
- Assist Information Providers to identify, record and report on social policy issues and provide regular social policy updates and briefings to the Information Provider team.
- Provide information in a variety of formats to outside agencies and community organisations as and when required and to support the Information Providers in developing these skills.
- Provide regular reports to the Development Manager and Information Providers team.

- Support the Development Manager to allocate the service's advocacy caseload efficiently, including external referral and engagement with the Advocacy Support Worker (ASW) as required.

Service Delivery

- Contribute to the development and implementation of policies and procedures as required.
- Comply with GDPR policies and procedures and all other legislative and policy requirements.
- Engage with CIB and other stakeholders as required.
- Lead and/or participate in projects as required by the Development Manager.
- This list is not exhaustive but serves to reflect the nature of the responsibilities included in the role.
- Given the nature of the organisation and the need to respond to customers' needs on an ongoing basis, the role is subject to change over time.

Quality

- Contribute to and implement any quality control measures required for information, advice and advocacy ensuring a common quality standard is applied across the relevant service. This will involve direct observation and review of Information Providers.
- Provide regular reports to the Development Manager regarding quality control issues. Identify training requirements within the Information Providers team and support the implementation of ongoing training programmes.
- Support the Development Manager to conduct regular advocacy case reviews to ensure professional standards are met in adherence with ASW programme best practice.
